I understand that a judgment may be entered against me (or the party on whose behalf I am acting) if an answer or motion under Rule 12 is not served upon you within 60 days after January 3, 2008, or within 90 days after that date if the request was sent outside the United States.

DUTY TO AVOID UNNECESSARY COSTS OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States who, after being notified of the action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of a summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for the failure to file and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service if a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the claims have been brought in the improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the dispute or over the person or property. A party who waives service of the summons waives all defenses and objections (except any objection to the summons or to the service of the summons), and every later objection to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service under the provisions of the waiver form serves on the plaintiff's attorney (or manager or agent) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against the defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served where the request for waiver of service was received.
